Our Mission, Activity, Funding Sources, and Disbursements

We support the providers, distributors, participants, and advocates of the Lifeline program through education, cooperation, and advocacy.

How Your Support Helps Lifeline...

A Strong Unified Voice for Industry Stakeholders.

NaLA is the only industry trade group specifically focused on the Lifeline program segment of the telecommunications marketplace. We unify ETCs & Providers, Distributors, Device Manufacturers, Software Providers, and other industry partners to create a unified voice and represent the industry as a whole.

How Does NaLA Use Its Funding?

NaLA represents more than 26 contributing companies and hundreds of Lifeline agents that connect low-income consumers to Lifeline program benefits. As an industry, we need to remain united and engaged. Through monthly contributions, NaLA is able to fund legal, lobbying, regulatory, public relations, and research efforts to advocate for the future of the Lifeline program.

Legal & Government Relations
 NaLA works to preserve our rights in federal courts and to engage government representatives to facilitate change at the federal and state levels to support the longevity and accessibility of the Lifeline program for eligible consumers.
Regulatory
 NaLA works with service providers, regulators, government representatives, and public interest organizations to establish program rules that promote access and participation while protecting program integrity.
Public Relations
 NaLA's Public Relations Team works to inform government officials and regulators, program supporters and advocates, Lifeline service providers, and other key stakeholders about the impact Lifeline has on consumers and on NaLA members' contributions to the success of these programs.
Outreach & Research
 NaLA's Research Team develops and disseminates key data on Lifeline analytics, statistics, survey responses, and customer preferences gathered from our service providers and customers.
